

Laura S. Tittel, B.A.

Research assistant at the Fritz-Bauer-Institute, Goethe-University Frankfurt/Main, Germany

E-mail: l.tittel@fritz-bauer-institut.de

Fields of interest:

- Frankfurt School of Critical Social Theory
- Research on the Holocaust and anti-Semitism
- Critique of political economy
- Modern European intellectual history
- German-Israeli relations

CV:

Since 2015 Research Assistant at the Fritz-Bauer-Institute in Frankfurt/Main

2014 Visiting student and Graduate Teaching Assistant in Virginia, USA. Participation in the master's program at the Department of Political Science of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University

2014 Scholarship of the DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) and ISEP (International Student Exchange Program)

Since 2012 Studies of Political Theory (M.A.) at Goethe-University Frankfurt/Main and Darmstadt Technical University

2011-2012 Teaching Assistant at the Department of Social Sciences at the University of Osnabrueck

2009-2012 Studies of European Studies (B.A.) at the University of Osnabrueck. Major: Social Sciences; minors: Law, Modern and Contemporary History, English, Spanish; topic of B.A. thesis: Marx's Critique of Human Rights

2008-2009 In Israel as a volunteer with the German-Israeli Association, Hebrew language studies

2006 High-school visit to Indiana, USA

Conference participation:

2015 Presentation on the topic “The Influence of the Haitian Revolution on the Thinking of Marx,” at the graduate conference “Representations of Resistance” at Virginia Polytechnical Institute and State University, USA. Support by the Association of Friends and Supporters of Goethe-University Frankfurt/Main